THE MISFORTUNE OF DEMOCRACY

by Pontifex Maximus Matt Hale

It is grand indeed that as I write these lines, the decision in the presidential race is not yet settled, for the longer that the fiasco continues, the more will the masses further be disenchanted with the whole system of government that we have the misfortune of currently living under. While those beholden to that system wring their hands and speak of the "harm to the nation" that is being caused by the ongoing legal battles, demands for recourts, and cries by each side that the other "stole the election", we anti-democratic Racial Loyalists smile, for we know indeed that these individuals are right when they say that the System is being damaged and know that it must make way for a better order that it is our drive to bring about.

While the Founding Fathers of America certainly had a different version of democracy than the mongrelized product that we live under today, we Racial Loyalists realize that if the original version was so wonderful, the plethora of problems we have today would not exist. Indeed, if their democratic creation was so good, few of the problems now befalling our White Race in America would have happened in the first place. For example, had the Founding Fathers established a system of government based on what is good for the White Race rather than the transitory whims of the "majority", we would never have seen the mud races be given the right to vote or even be allowed into America for that matter and those mud races already here at that point (black slaves and Indians) would have been repatriated. We as White people would not be facing the reality that we will soon be (if we Creators do not win the hearts and minds of the people) a minority in our own land. We would not have the situation in which most of our people are utterly lacking in any form of idealism, and due to that, lack true joy and purpose in life. The hollow concept of "majority rule" therefore is not only inadequate to insure the stability of a nation, but more importantly, is conducive towards the destruction of our White people. This is especially so when the people have been thoroughly softened up with self-hating doctrines such as Christianity and egalitarianism, and because of the existence of "equal rights" of all that can walk on two legs and speak, the great master of the lie, the Jew, has had a field day propagandizing the people with these concepts.

We Creators recognize that it is not the exact form and organization of a government that matters so much as the guiding principle behind that form of government. For we Creators, the guiding principle of any government should be the survival, expansion, and advancement of the Race. The guiding principle behind the democratic form of government, however, is the idea of everyone having the "freedom" to do whatever they want so long as it does not harm others. What a selfish, careless, and shortsighted doctrine! It is a directionless doctrine without ideals and without purpose. It is little wonder then that in the "democracies", racemixing, drug use, prostitution, and crime are rampant. We Creators therefore say "no thanks" to such joys. Instead, we want something far better. We want a government in which its essential core is the interests of the White Race as a whole and not the subsidy of various individual whims. We want a government that is intolerant of any idea destructive to the health, morality, and biological integrity of our people. This, we realize, is true and worthwhile freedom--the freedom of our Race to exist and prosper.

We hearken the day when the election of various political prostitutes will give way to an eternal order. We hearken the day when democracy, or "rule by the most conniving" will give way to the Leadership Principle in which responsibility, efficiency, and discipline will reign. More specifically, we look forward to rule by the World Church of the Creator and the unity of church and state that this will entail. We will know then that true purpose Nature gave all of us will forever be fulfilled: the promotion, propagation, and perpetuation of our species and improving upon it as it continues into the future (NER, page 252). The day will come when "democracy" will turn to dust and we will forever obliterate the notion that the selfishness of the individual comes before the interests of the whole. Instead, the individual will find his or her highest meaning in life to be the welfare of his immediate and racial family. Such will be the true "will of the people". RAHOWA!

Fifth Public Meeting Goes Well

The Church's Fifth Public Meeting held on November 25 at the Bloomington, Illinois Public Library went well. While turnout was less than it normally would be due to the meeting date falling on Thanksgiving weekend, the meeting itself was still well worth the while and the dedication of we Creators was further affirmed and solidified. This time, the rogues of the "Jewish Defense League" were absent. The next public meeting will likely be held in mid-January and the January 28AC issue of The Struggle will provide all of the details. RAHOWA!

Have YOU Called the World Headquarters Hotline This Week?

With so much happening at World Headquarters each week, the World Headquarters Hotline is instrumental in keeping Creators informed. For this reason, Creators should call it every week. After all, as has happened a number of times previously, major events concerning the Church sometimes occur weeks prior to the printing of the next issue of The Struggle and by calling the hotline, you'll know of these events when they happen. The number is (309) 699-0135. RAHOWA!

PM Hale Takes Portion of Bar Exam

As part of his journey once again seeking the law license that has been illegally denied him thus far by the state of Illinois, PM Hale on November 10 retook the Multistate Professional Responsibility Examination which is required by most states for admission to their various Bars. PM Hale originally took a version of this exam in March 24AC and scored 44 out of 50 questions correctly. He should know soon how he fared in this latest exam. While it is of course frustrating for him to have to repeat the efforts he performed with flying colors years ago due to the actions of the swine who denied him his license in Illinois, he must do so in order to move forward in the state of Montana and elsewhere if he chooses. RAHOWA!

PM Hale Interviews with "Tech TV" Documentary Crew

On November 20, PM Hale provided an interview focusing on "Leaderless Resistance" for "Tech TV". This interview should be airing some time in December or January. When World Headquarters has the airdat, it will be announced on the weekly hotline or in the pages of The Struggle if possible. RAHOWA!

"Egg in Face" Illinois Attorney General Jim Ryan Appeals Dismissal of Suit Against Church and PM Hale

In yet another example of the perversion of the "justice" system, Illinois Attorney General Jim Ryan has appealed to the Illinois Supreme Court the dismissal of his ridiculous case against the Church and PM Hale. As long time readers of The Struggle will recall, this suit was thrown out by Judge Julia Nowicki on February 8 of this year who ruled that the "Solicitation for Charity Act" under which the Attorney General brought the suit was unconstitutional in that it violated our First Amendment and Due Process rights. The suit had been filed as an act of political pandering last year in the wake of the Brother Ben "August" Smith shooting spree and clearly Ryan was motivated by political interests in bringing it.

Upon receiving word of Ryan's appeal, PM Hale stated, "It looks like Attorney General Jim Ryan wants more egg in his face and we look forward to obliging him. While we won a great victory over him in February, our victory before the Illinois Supreme Court will be an even greater one and will severely damage his future political aspirations--aspirations that he is obviously trying to further by bringing this silly lawsuit in the first place. The fact that this man is so hellbent on twisting laws to violate our religious freedoms demonstrates that he is not 'morally fit' to practice law in this state."

It will take some months before this matter is decided. In any case, victory will be ours. RAHOWA!

Get Your Copy of the Public Meetings!

On April 22, 27AC, PM Hale spoke in Mattoon, Illinois. On June 17, 27AC, PM Hale spoke in Peoria, Illinois. On October 28, 27AC, PM Hale spoke in Bloomington, Illinois. On November 25, 27AC, PM Hale spoke in Bloomington, Illinois. All four exciting speeches--sometimes with opposition desperate to interrupt and stymie our great message, are available on video for $10 each. If you can't physically be at the public meetings, choose the next best thing and obtain these videos for showing to all White Racial Comrades. RAHOWA!

Monkeywrenching The Anti-White System by Sister Lisa Turner

The World Church of the Creator was founded on the basis of promoting a legal revolution of values. Ben Klassen taught that "every step along the way is legal, constitutional and non-violent." Despite the slanderous attempts of our enemies to twist and misrepresent our Creed to the masses of our White Brothers and Sisters, the fact remains that Creativity is a legal pro-White Movement. Nevertheless, we never overlook tactical opportunities to aim our forces like a battering ram at this rotting structure. The phrase "throwing a wrench into the works" is used to describe an action which results in disruption, interruption or breakdown of a system. When a wrench is thrown into machinery, the "works" are slowed, dismantled, or destroyed. The term "monkeywrenching" was coined by the group "Earth First", which has used various techniques to stop the destruction of Nature by big business. While groups such as Earth First are on the far left of the political spectrum, this term is one that racialists should incorporate into our propaganda. The "hippies" in the 1960's advocated wholesale, random disruption of the "Establishment", with no clear blueprint for the future other than "free love" and being "anti-authority". However, we White fighters must monkeywrench the system in ways specifically designed to bring down the forces arrayed against us. This does not mean committing illegal acts. Such acts are counterproductive and play into the hands of our enemies who are looking for any excuse to bury more proud warriors deep within the bowels of JOG dungeons worldwide. Our Founder did not want our heads served up on a silver platter to the Jews. He wanted us to work smart, think smart, and act smart.

Our female activists are uniquely suited to monkeywrench. The JOG media perpetuates the stereotype that the racial Movement is composed primarily of "evil White males". Therefore, women are often downplayed, thus giving more leeway and opportunity on a variety of levels to fight against the anti-White system. While the Women's Frontier always strives to educate our Folk about the fact that White women are as active and as present in this struggle as men, we can use the element of surprise to our advantage in many instances. The vast majority of sheeple are still not expecting a female racist or activist to be in their midst. They assume that "most" White women automatically subscribe to the leftist/feminist ideologies. We can make these false assumptions work for us. Women and girls have a natural (imbued by Nature) ability to communicate thoughts and feelings to neighbors, friends, family, etc. and a knack for putting people at ease. This is undoubtedly a genetic trait stemming from the role Nature intended women to fill first and foremost: motherhood. We are attuned intuitively with heightened sensitivity to our surroundings and to subtle stimuli. "Woman's intuition" is not a myth. People will often confide hopes, dreams and inner feelings or frustrations to a woman, but might not go to a man with those same concerns. A child will often talk to their mother about subjects they wouldn't discuss with their father. The same realities apply to our Movement. We must recognize our strengths as female activists, and use them to the greatest benefit of our Race.

There are many effective ways to monkeywrench that are legal and strike a powerful blow on a daily basis for our Folk. Some of these actions are private and some are public. The World Church of the Creator has always recognized that a combination of public and private action is the most effective approach to win this mighty battle. We recognize that not all of our Comrades can be public, high profile activists. It is unrealistic to expect that large numbers of White people are going to speak openly for our Cause, regardless of how much we want them to do so, or how much we know that they ultimately must do so in order for our Race to survive. At the same time, we know that open, public leaders, as epitomized by our courageous Leader, Reverend Matt Hale, are vital to galvanize our Folk and serve as lightning rods to attract large numbers of them. In all eras of history, there have only been a handful of men and women in the forefront. Human nature being what it is, this fact has never changed since the beginning of time. The sacrifice and service of our public leaders comes at a high price to them personally, but without such individuals, the masses have no rallying point, no inspiration, and no motivation. Revolution cannot exist without leadership.

The fact that the Women's Frontier newsletter can travel electronically over the Internet instantly to hundreds of like-minded Racial Loyalists who then share it with others (conceivably to millions across the globe) is a supreme example of monkeywrenching. The Internet itself is the ultimate monkeywrench. Technology has thrown a huge and unexpected wrench into the "works" of the controlled, censored Jew media, bypassing it completely. The idea that one person with a computer can be an instant "journalist" has struck fear into the hearts of the yids. The idea that a 12 year-old with a computer has the potential to get as many visits to his/her website as the biggest media outlets such as CNN or NBC has created demoralization and disruption within the "Establishment." Monkeywrenching can take many forms. Psychologically undermining our enemies on the job, at school, or in the community by creating situations which interfere with their ability to function effectively is a prime example. We must utilize the same social control mechanisms and tactics (mind control and brainwashing) they have used against us for years. Women have an instinctive understanding of how to utilize the social arena to disrupt the mud/Jew World Order structure. Another excellent example of open, legal monkeywrenching is Rev. Hale's edict that Whites stop voting in the corrupt JOG elections. The ultimate goal is to undermine all vestiges of confidence in the tattered system. If you are a "drone" in an anti-White corporate mud pit, "forgetting" to send a crucial document to the Head Race Traitor of Mud Lovers, Inc. can be extremely damaging, given the right circumstances. Forgetfulness isn't against the law. Never underestimate the cost, in $$$ and morale to anti-White entities, corporate or individual, when their "works" are disrupted repeatedly. If every White man, woman and child would dedicate themselves to doing one act of monkeywrenching every day, victory would be that much closer. Society is delicately balanced; small "mistakes" can have big impacts.

Responsibility for actions outside the law lies solely with the individual. The fact is, an activist can get arrested just as easily for completely legal and constitutionally protected activities such as literature distribution, publishing a pro-White zine, or giving a pro-White speech. Staying legal sends a much stronger message, and brings more positive attention to our Cause because it dramatically reveals the true face of the enemy. When legal methods trigger oppressive, draconian attacks by hysterical, defensive Jews and their lackeys, any fair-minded person can clearly see the injustice. This in turn arouses a backlash of hatred and disgust within the hearts of our Folk. When they see a law-abiding person (especially a woman or a woman with children!) persecuted, harassed, and imprisoned, they are far more alarmed because they know it signals the end of our supposed freedoms. They wonder: "Am I next?" There's no need to look for ways to "break the law" at a time in our history when merely uttering "unapproved" words, subscribing to a newsletter, or writing an essay can lead to a prison cell.

Careful thought is essential to being an effective monkeywrencher. Study your environment and choose the wisest course of action. Don't engage in impulsive, random acts. Monkeywrenching must appear (seemingly) out of nowhere and catch the muds/jews by surprise. It cannot be emphasized enough that we women are well suited for this role. There is very little expectation that a typical "girl next door" who blends into the woodwork is struggling and sacrificing for her Race, rather than working for her "slavemasters". A low-key, mainstream image in dress and behavior will achieve optimum effect in many instances.

As we approach the 28th year of the racial religion of Creativity, the motto of every racial monkeywrencher must be: "I vow to make something go wrong every day for the enemies of our People!" We women must do our part in this daily exercise because we currently have a fantastic tactical advantage. With millions of our people, men and women, making this commitment, the works will grind to a halt, hopelessly tangled in a million shattered pieces. On that day, the adherents of Creativity, guided by our Leadership, will stand at the helm ready to rebuild the machinery and repair a racially polluted world! RAHOWA!

Rebirth of the Phoenix
by Rev. Kenneth Molyneux

The White Race is plummeting downwards in a fiery inferno of destruction, into the abyss. As the White Race declines, so does the world. This state of decadence is truly tragic and must be reversed. Never before in the long annals of our people has such a worldwide threat to our existence occurred. There have been episodes in our history that have adversely affected our grand folk but they did not endanger us near as profoundly like our present age does.

The doom and gloom age that wickedly disfigured the vigor of White people in Europe was known as the Dark Ages. This time was full of ignorance, superstition, torture, and general stagnation that was caused by the Jewish teachings of Christianity. This blight blotted out light and hope for millions of our comrades while they were forced to bow down and worship a fictitious being whom they had never seen or heard. If they didn't comply, then a whole slew of diabolical tortures awaited them.

Amid this atmosphere of Christian control, intellectual ventures were stamped out ruthlessly, with death being a common occurrence if one possessed certain banned books. Many of these banned books we now term as enlightened works of the Classical Age. As a result of this block of intellectual growth, a thousand years slowly rolled on devoid of the advances that the White Race would surely have made had not a muzzle been placed on our geniuses.

As the power of Christian Church slowly declined, the intellectual spirit that embraces our kind burst forth like a raging wave of water after the floodgates had been opened. The Renaissance, as it was called, ushered forth a new age of enlightenment and brilliance that rivaled that of the Classical Era. The shackles of Christianity had not been shattered, only loosened. This loosening, however, allowed such geniuses as Da Vinci, Raphael, Michelangelo and many others to shine brightly. The total destruction of the Christian prison will surely bring forth even more such geniuses.

While the plague of Christianity was a cancer located within our system, the White Race has faced many foes that threatened it from the outside. Alien hosts that have assaulted the fortresses of our mighty people include the Huns, Moors, Mongols, and the Ottomans. These outside sources perilously invaded our lands but we survived all their onslaughts.

The main reason we were able to survive many of these deadly attacks were by unity of our people. Granted, not all Whites unified to stop these foreign rapists but it was generally regarded as an "us versus them" type of battle. The integrity of the White Race remained intact throughout these excursions but the threat we face today is not in the form of a military invasion.

The infection that tears apart the White Race today comes in the form of a demonic Jew and treacherous traitors that cooperate with our enemies. Our White lands are filled with vermin who leech off our people while ravaging our neighborhoods. While the greatness of the world has overwhelmingly been a product of the White Race, this contribution is being destroyed while our White Culture is being forgotten. Therefore, it is plainly evident for all to see: civilization is dead.

Despite the mounting obstacles in our path, the overwhelming grandiosity of our people will prevail as they have done in the past. The strength and willpower of our race is such that victory is inevitable. The only variable is that of time, as it might only take a year to reclaim our world or it may take a hundred. Out of the burning ashes and destructive firestorm that swirls chaotically, spreading devastation, doom, and decay, the vibrant Phoenix that is the White Race will be born again. RAHOWA!

To Be a Jew is to Know The Jews
by Mr. J. Scott Drummond

"Biology is destiny," the great philosopher Plato said two millennia ago. A century ago, Nietzsche recognized that Race determined whether we are ascending, or decadent, life. He also recognized that one man could be both healthy and sick. I am such a man programmed in both directions. My father is a successful White man. My mother is a degenerate Jew. My father has suffered greatly for his original sin and so have his children. My mother has sabotaged him and his children. She has threatened to kill her children, has sexually molested them, and has been hysterical in her biological program to decimate all who are non-Jews, including her children. It is in her blood.

Jews are masters of indirect communication. In a crowded room, they make a comment directed at you while looking at someone else. They do not name you specifically so that they cannot be held accountable. Then, if you defend yourself, they use their skills in theater to attack you for attacking them when they were the aggressor in the first place. They do this in world politics also. They have convinced the befuddled of the world that they are innocent and the moral "chosen" people. They of course are the aggressors par excellence. They therefore have everyone defending them and coming to their aid because they are better actors. To sum up, in defending yourself and being naturally and justifiably angry, you seem like the aggressor but are not, while the Jews, by learning how to be dramatic and in shock, look like the "victim" and appear to be in the right. I have seen my mother, my grandfather, and my aunt and uncle do this so many times. Everyone turns on me when I am being entirely honest and in touch with the facts. When I apply this analysis to the world stage I see the same tactics in the Middle East. They say, "The Arabs attacked first" or "The Arabs are terrorists" or "Hitler hates the Jews." The truth, of course, is that Israel stole the Arab land first and that the Jews wanted to debase German culture and destroy Germany and make it a communist country and materialist long before Hitler came to power.

The Jew never reaches adulthood. He has a childlike demeanor. Jews are prone to incest for they never really advance to maturity in their sexuality. Freud is an excellent example and he tried to spread his illness to the entire world. My aunt is a very sick woman. She told me just the other day that she does not care about anything except the stock market, and yet she wonders why the world hates the Jews! My grandmother yesterday said that "the Jews are not a race." I realized that she was justifiably ashamed. My grandfather at thanksgiving dinner asked me why my hair was shaved so thin. He said, "people might think you are a skinhead." I smiled and said "perhaps I am." I still attend these family events so that I can study the Jews and the Philistines, and the bourgeois whom are not Jews but who act more and more like them every day. I think the greater danger lies in my father and the Whites like him who are not proud of their race and who are materialists and give lip service to Jewish worship of manna and Greenspan and Clinton and the U.N. The Jews we know are lost causes but the Whites we cannot afford to lose. In my case, I fight every day in a case of Nietzschean self-overcoming.

My situation is very interesting because the Jewish half of my body fights me viciously when I read Alfred Rosenberg and other Nazi ideologues, and Nietzsche and Ben Klassen. My right hand is currently paralyzed, my body breaks out in a rash, and doctors can find no physical cause. The Jewish poison moves in mysterious ways but it is no match for even only half of a proud White man armed with the literature and tenacity that I possess. Hail Rev. Hale and RAHOWA the sooner the better! Please e-mail with feedback at truthandculture@hotmail.com

An Understanding of Self by Brother Gordon Wright

We as a Folk share common bonds that not even the "culture distorter" can destroy. These bonds are the essence of our Folk. Our people have become lost in a sea of Jewish lies, but one can easily still be found simply by making an introspection of self and seeking the answer to "who am I"? I think of the wild-eyed Celt racing across a grassy green field with a sword raised over his head to meet an adversary knowing not what fate had in store for him. I think of the Roman centurion leading his legion into a fearless battle. I think of the German general deep in the trenches up on the front lines as a part of the collective strength, will, and determination of our Folk to free themselves from the struggling grip of the parasitic Jew. I think of the great philosophers, inventors, and scientists who have shaped the world's understanding. I think of the greatness and glory of our Folk. Who am I? I am all of these things. The same blood that ran through the veins of our ancestors runs through ours. No matter what geographic location our people have settled, their greatness became manifest. Honor, courage, creativity, and overall greatness were inherent qualities and they remain inherent qualities today.

No matter how many alien ideas distort the mind of our Folk through the collective efforts of the Jew, there always remains its true nature--a true nature able to be stirred from its Jew-induced slumber. The very moment that one makes an introspection of self, the spoonfed lies of the culture distorter begin to crash and burn. That is what the Jew is afraid of. This is why the Jew will never promote Whites to take pride in their culture, for to do so would lead to his own extinction.

The most dangerous weapon to the Jew is for the White Man to have an understanding of self. Once one realizes one's inherent greatness passed down by one's ancestors, that spark of racial consciousness ignites. Brothers and Sisters, we must be that spark which will awaken the spirit of our Folk. We must free our Folk from the alien ideologies and make them look within themselves and answer the question "who am I?" Once our Folk develop a clear understanding of self, the true nature of our Folk will become manifest again! RAHOWA!

Letters

RAHOWA Brothers and Sisters!

We proudly send our greetings to all of you, and hold our heads high to the thought that we will be standing side by side with you. Marching forth together, there is nothing that can stop our great Creed from bursting outwards to the millions of White people all around the world. We here from Steel Front (Polish Creators) will proudly carry the flag of Creativity to our still befuddled Brothers and Sisters. Our special task will be to introduce our Church into the Polish community of Chicago (population of two million) as well as Toronto, New York, and wherever else Polish communities exist in North America. Another goal will be to introduce Creativity into Poland herself as there are many Racial Loyalists there who support the WCOTC but are lacking the Holy Books and other materials translated into their ethnic language. As you can see, we have lots of work to do, so it will be comforting to know that all of you have similar struggles as well and that we are not therefore the only ones that can't sleep at night! If you would like to make things a little easier on myself and the other comrades from Steel Front, I would appreciate it if you gave our Illinois address (on the back of this month's Struggle) to any Polish speaking Creators you know so that they can help us with the translations.

This is our introduction of Steel Front to all of you. So with this said, we stand tall, heads held high as our eyes look far into the future. As pride runs through our bodies, we feel an electricity-like pulse rushing up our backs, as the great Romans once did, we stretch our arms forth and salute you in glory...RAHOWA!

Few complain about 'racist' TV show

Waterbury Republican American Naugatuck, Connecticut

Cable program may have small audience

By Brynn Mandel

NAUGATUCK — There have been no angry mobs; no petitions circulated; not even a rally to protest the Valley arrival of "White Revolution," an ongoing series of half-hour weekly episodes produced by the self-proclaimed "fastest growing racist and anti-Semitic organization in America."

"The television series, touted as racist by the 'white loyalist' group's founder, the Rev. Matt Hale, began airing on the Valley's Tele-Media Cable Channel 10 on Fridays at 6 p.m. in mid-September.

And, so far, it has provoked barely a peep. "Honestly, we had a call or two, but that's really all," said Liz Kennard, Tele-Media program director, of public reaction to the show. "Does the lack of response surprise her?"

"Not really," Kennard said, explaining viewers in Tele-Media's Valley service area — 90,000 homes in Naugatuck, Beacon Falls, Shelton, Ansonia, Derby, Seymour, Oxford and Bethany — usually tune into the public access channel to watch specific programming, such as a school athletic game, a local election show or community-based programming.

While "White Revolution" and similar shows still air in a number of cities across the nation right now, "the reality is, in general, they've been airing in the middle of the night," said Mark Potok, a spokesman for the Montgomery, Ala.-based Southern Poverty Law Center, a civil rights organization.

Potok calls "White Revolution" a throw-back. Racist groups, he said, have used public access television as a medium for their message since 1984, the year the first racist show, White Aryan Resistance's "Race and Reason," hit the airwaves.

"At the time, it got massive publicity," said Potok.

But the number of such shows has decreased over the past decade. The reason: the Internet, a much easier and cheaper means of getting these messages out, Potok said.

That said, the reason someone like Hale might choose using public access television is simple to figure out, Potok said, explaining it's just another way to recruit members.

"They anger a great many people — probably 99 percent of the general population," Potok said of shows like "White Revolution." "But they also attract a small fraction of the people to the cause."

Sunday Hale confirmed the show has helped his East Peoria, Ill.-based Church of the World Creator attract members.

"It's been going pretty good," he said of the show's run in the Valley and its other Connecticut market, greater New Haven. "We've received some e-mails, calls and letters."

Hale estimated 60 percent to 70 percent of the feedback he has received from Connecticut is positive, and added he's even recruited "a few" church members.

In a September interview, Hale argued that espousing his white supremacist views on television and the Internet helps deter those who share racist points of view from acting out.

Attorney general seeks Hale records
11/19/14 THE PEORIA JOURNAL/STAFF
EAST PEORIA — Attorney General Jim Ryan has appealed ed to the Illinois Supreme Court, asking it to declare white supremacist Matt Hale group a charity and therefore subject to financial disclosure laws.

In a recently filed brief, Ryan disagreed with a Cook County judge who ruled the state's use of the Solicitation for Charity Act was unconstitutional vague and violated "defendants' First and 14th Amendment rights of free speech and due process."

The judge dismissed the case in February. Ryan sued Hale and the World Church of the Creator last year in the wake of a former member's multistate shooting spree, alleging Hale group is an unregistered charity and must provide a full accounting of its finances.

Hale, 29, of East Peoria disputed that notion, saying Ryan sued his church for political reasons and refused to turn over the books or discuss its finances.

Rainbow racism

the guilt-by-association implication is Mr. Hale's followers are a pack of murderous lunatics. Contrast that with the media's treatment of founders of the original Black Panther Party. The angry anti-white rhetoric of Bobby Seale and Huey Newton in the 1960s incited riots in which many Panthers and police died; today, the media romanticize them as "revolutionary humanists."

Nothing new there. Stories about A. Sharpton no longer mention Tawana Brawley, the black teenager with whom he conspired to falsely accuse white policemen and prosecutors of abducting and raping her. The media give him undeserved legitimacy by trotting him out as a political analyst and blowing hell into the trial balloon he floated last week when he said he might run for mayor of New York.

Jesse Jackson got his own CNN show even though he disdains Jews, as evidenced by his assessment of New York City as "Hymietown." He later said he was sorry, and the media forgave him; but repeated apologies didn't stop the media mauling of John Rocker.

Louis Farrakhan's bigotry goes beyond anti-Semitism. His Nation of Islam has many goals, including: "We want our people in America whose parents or grandparents were descendants from slaves, to be allowed to establish a separate state or territory of their own — either on this continent or elsewhere"; and "this is the time in history for the separation of the so-called Negroes and the so-called white Americans."

As far as the media are concerned, Messrs. Sharpton, Jackson and Farrakhan and the Black Panthers can say and do almost anything they wish, they can be obnoxious and offensive, they can put down whites and Jews, and not have to answer for their statements because they are black.

But for saying essentially the same things from the white perspective, Matt Hale is a hate monger. We don't much like his message, either, and we won't watch his TV show. But at least he's man enough to admit what he is.

Letters to the editor

Exposing bigots not a political issue

We were shocked to see your Oct. 2 editorial "O Shea can you see" calling it "liberal logic" and a tactic of "our friends on the left" to tar Matt Hale, founder of the hate group World Church of the Creator, with the brush of Benjamin Smith, "a follower of Mr. Hale's who also happens to be a racist killer." To politicize the fight against bigots ignores the facts of the violent landscape traveled by members of the World Church.

Finally, it is neither leftist nor liberal to note that Benjamin Smith was an active member of WCOCT and he lived out WCOCT's mandate of hate over July 4 weekend in 1999, when he went on a shooting spree in Illinois and Indiana that left two dead and nine wounded. All of Smith's victims were either Black, Jewish or Asian-American.

Audience members disagree with Hale

The audience was silent as Matt Hale, pontifex maximus of the World Church of the Creator (WCC), and six followers briskly strode to the podium of the Bloomington Public Library's Community Room last Saturday.

Hale, flanked on either side by a young man standing at attention and holding a WCC flag, spoke uninterrupted for nearly 30 minutes about the state of politics in America and the upcoming presidential election.

"Brothers and sisters, I came to speak about an important issue in our country today, the fraud of the political system," Hale said. "Our plea not to vote may seem an odd one, but voting for the lesser of two evils perpetuates evil. We can't hope to have a better society if we are subsidizing evil."

Hale used the election as a springboard to discuss the ideology of the WCC — "The Survival, Expansion and Advancement of the White Race," as stated on the organization's website. "This is the first time to my knowledge he's publicly spoken on the political thing," said Chicago Chairman of the Jewish Defense League Ian Sigel, who attends all of Hale's public appearances to speak out against his message of white supremacy. "He's losing support and fishing for something people can hold on to. His organization is pretty much in shambles, but if we don't keep the pressure on, it could resurface."

After about 30 minutes, the mounting tension erupted as members of the 126-person audience began to shout out their disapproval of Hale's teachings of anti-Semitism and separatism.

"He's helping to disrupt humanity itself, and we have to get back to that humanity and not the hate," Heartland Community College student Julie Pascal said after Hale's speech.

Not all audience members agreed with Pascal, though, as Hale supporters frequently argued with protesters throughout the speech. "He has the right to free speech," one woman shouted as Sigel and Hale argued. "Why don't you guys respect him and what he has to say?"

In anticipation of such conflicts, the library had an extra security officer on duty, and between two and four Bloomington police officers were present throughout the meeting.

According to library director Matthew Kubiak, since the Peoria library has received bomb threats when Hale has spoken there, the entire library was scanned Thursday and Friday nights and Saturday morning.

More bias pamphlets found

Literature attacking minorities is left on local streets, lawns

Yaron Steinbuch
The Journal News

A white supremacist group that has targeted various local communities in recent weeks left pamphlets on Pleasantville and Chappaqua streets yesterday.

Pleasantville police received a complaint that a pamphlet from the World Church of the Creator was left near a home on Stuyvesant

The literature turned up on the streets of Tarrytown last month and in June. Pamphlets also were distributed in Croton-Hudson last month and in Putnam in April — as well as in Fulton and Rockland counties, New York City and various upstate communities.

The pamphlet attacks blacks, Jews and Hispanics, using scientific jargon and references to mainstream academic sources, some of them false, to lend credibility to the claims.

The bias unit of the Westchester County District Attorney's Office has been looking into the recent cases.

Steve, police Sgt. Andrew Schirato said. A Maple Hill Road resident, who declined to be identified, said pamphlets — wrapped in orange plastic — were left on lawns, including his own.

Pamphlets also were distributed in Chappaqua. Police Sgt. Marc Simmons said a complaint was made on Valley Lane, and the matter was turned over to detectives.

The 32-page pamphlet, called "Facts That the Government and the Media Don't Want You to Know," details the views of the Rev. Matt Hale, the self-proclaimed "pontifex maximus" of the Illinois-based group.

"Anyone can distribute anything that does not rise to the level of a crime," said Anne Marie Curball, a spokeswoman for the District Attorney's Office. "There is an inquiry and we're working closely with police."

Pleasantville Mayor John Nonna, when contacted last night, said he was unaware of yesterday's incidents.

"I don't like it. I don't condone it," he said. "But it's the price we have to pay because the First Amendment allows a lot of latitude."

He said, however, that if any literature calls for violence, "it would go over the line."

"They (pamphlets) won't find fertile ground in Pleasantville," Nonna added. "They're wasting their time disseminating here."

The pamphlets list a post office box in Sleepy Hollow as a mailing address for more information about the group, which was linked to a shooting rampage in July 1989 that left three people dead.

A special report on the World Church of the Creator by the Anti-Defamation League said that "while the COYC might be small in numbers, the organization is compensating with an aggressive barrage of mailings and recruitment efforts."

After the way Matt Hale has been portrayed in the Journal Star, I never thought I would be agreeing with him on anything. But I have to say to someone that would appoint judges to the U.S. Supreme Court, that interpret the Constitution liberally. She should insist on prison reform. Make prison life so rough that when a person gets out of prison, they will never want to go back.

As a GI, I slept in 72-man barracks with only about 30 inches between double-decked bunks. I also slept in pup tents, in the rain and mud. If these conditions are good enough for the defenders of this country, they are more than good enough for convicted criminals.

erupt." Kubiak said. "Other than audience members yelling and swearing at each other, violence was prevented." He estimated that no more than 20 members were supporters of Hale.

"I know a lot of people in this audience agree with me," Hale said following his speech. "I've been shaking hands with them. Some are even non-whites. This was my first speech here, and it won't be the last. We have a lot of work in Bloomington-Normal."

Hale has again reserved the Bloomington Public Library's Community Room for Nov. 25.

A religion of creativity

Throughout the meeting, Hale shared his church's main concern — preservation of the white race.

"We proclaim allegiance to something we know exists — our white race," Hale said. "We believe in nature's laws, which means preserving your own kind, aiding and abetting your own people and letting others take care of themselves."

The WCC began Feb. 21, 1973, with founder Ben Klassen's publication of "Nature's Eternal Religion." The church now recognizes 14 "Holy Books of Creativity." This ideology of Creativity is based on the belief that "White people are the creators of all worthwhile culture and civilization," according to the WCC website.

The focus on uplifting the white race consequently compels the WCC to embrace hatred.

"Hatred is never had in itself. Hatred is a tool," Hale said. "Is it a negative hate to resist your culture and civilization from being gutted and to care about your family and children? As white people, we have the right to survive and preserve our kind and interest. I don't care if people call this hatred. This is love for my people."

When an audience member questioned the morality of such a doctrine, Hale clarified his definition of morality.

"Our moral compass says that what is good for our people is moral, and what is bad for our people is immoral," Hale said.

Numerous comments supporting hatred and the promotion of the white race disgusted one audience member so much that he stood up and said, "I am ashamed to be white today," as he left mid-speech.

Despite a firm belief in the intellectual superiority of the white race, the WCC is concerned for the race's future if organizations such as theirs don't continue to demand a focus on white rights.

"The fundamental reason to be part of the white movement is because white people are becoming a minority, becoming extinct right now," Rev. John Schlimmann, an 18-year-old WCC minister, said after Hale's speech.

He expressed his concern that white women of childbearing age comprise only two percent of the world's population.

Schlimmann, who accompanies Hale on all of his speeches, became involved in the white racial movement when he was 13. After former WCC member Benjamin Smith made headlines for his July 1999 shooting spree in which he killed two people, injured nine others and committed suicide, Schlimmann thought the church would need financial support due to negative publicity. He donated money to the WCC headquarters and received some of the WCC books, which he read and with which he fully agreed. Schlimmann stressed he did not become involved with the church because of Smith's shootings.

Schlimmann became a minister six months ago after studying the religion of Creativity and passing a test including over 180 questions, most of them essay.

According to Pascal, "In regard to the followers of Hale, I think there's a lot of brainwashing going on and people just following his judgment."

During the meeting, Hale shared statistics similar to the one Schlimmann mentioned concerning world population.

"In 1920, 35 percent of the world's population was white. Today it is eight percent," Hale said. "Why would a person want to be a minority?"

When an audience member suggested that whites' violence towards people of color has caused the suffering of minorities, Hale said, "Learn your history. You would realize that whenever white people became a minority, they have been persecuted. No one in their right mind would want to lose power."

"You can preach white pride all you want. There's nothing wrong with seeking self worth," Sigel said after the meeting. "Most of us suffer the sin of pride, be it national, ethnic, religious or even of our local sports team. The problem lies with a doctrine that promotes and encourages the persecution and destruction of another people."

Anti-Semitism

Hale disagreed that Judaism isn't seeking the destruction of all other peoples, and he cited Bible passages to back up his belief. According to Sigel, these citations exemplified the way Hale perpetuates lies that are convenient to furthering his cause.

Hale also shared his belief that Jewish people not only control but also run America, and he discussed U.S. aid to Israel as a main example of this problem.

"Jews have to be looked at as a form of parasite since they are sponging off of people," Hale said.

"We have a situation where the blood of a country is being sucked dry. Then you have a parasite. That money is going to Israel, which is an international welfare state."

Hale shared his disgust that both Al Gore and George W. Bush showed they supported Israel in the presidential debates and claimed that this support is causing terrorist attacks against the United States, such as the recent attack against the USS Cole.

"We are putting the bullets in the Israelis' guns to shoot these Palestinians, to commit crimes against their neighbors," Hale said.

Sigel, however, believes the Jews are the victims in the Middle East conflict and noted recent Palestinian attacks on Israeli police and civilians throughout the latest outbreak of violence in the Middle East.

"I used to believe in racial equality, but I know now it's not supported by evidence," Hale said. "In the field of intellect, we are better. There was a movie a few years ago called 'White Men Can't Jump.' What about a movie that 'Black Men Can't Think'? Why can't we say we have done more than other races?"

When IWU senior Sara Powers suggested that white supremacy has oppressed other races and prevented them from making contributions to society, Hale dismissed her point.

"The idea that we've oppressed the world is a lie," Hale said. "I was taught that, too."

Hale brought up the subject of affirmative action to further explain how he believes nonwhites are threatening whites' place in American society.

"Affirmative action is a code word for discrimination against white people, and preferences mean that white men need not apply," Hale said.

Despite one audience member's rebuttal that, by law, it is illegal to implement quotas or discriminate against any race, Hale contended that any white individual who walks into a government office would not be hired because of affirmative action and government incentives to hire minorities.

Hale also shared his disapproval of illegal and legal immigration, arguing that the influx of illegal immigrants into America is driving down white workers' wages. According to Hale, the racial composition of legal immigrants, with 85 percent being nonwhite, is making whites a minority in the United States.

Several audience members embraced such diversity, though, saying that it can only enhance American society.

"You need to be exposed to other countries," Pascal said. "It's a sad life to open yourself to only one kind of race."

The WCC and Bloomington-Normal

Hale was able to bring his controversial teachings to Bloomington-Normal because one of his WCC members who lives in the community reserved the Community Room of the Bloomington Public Library for Hale's speech.

"I had great personal hesitation in allowing him to speak, but in terms of what the law requires of us, it was pretty open and shut," said Kubiak, who sought advice from a Peoria attorney who specializes in library law and is knowledgeable about first amendment rights. According to Kubiak, the library legally couldn't do anything to prevent Hale's meeting.

Despite his mixed welcome, Hale said he was pleased with the meeting and that the next step in Bloomington-Normal is to pass out more literature and schedule future public meetings.

"I hope to come here again and again," Hale said. "I know it will be a challenge and a struggle, but that's part of the fight."

Protesters vowed to make Hale's future in Bloomington-Normal a difficult one.

"I'll be back every time he's here," Sorak said. "I don't really have anything more important than coming here to make my presence known and show I'm opposed to his teachings."

"From what I picked up in the meeting, there's a sense that he's not welcome in this community," Kubiak said. "I hope he's bright enough to realize, that — that hatred isn't a hot commodity here."

"The general public has no real concept of the facts, and Hale is simply exploiting that situation," Sigel said. "Israel is a sovereign nation and a strong ally, which the United States must help maintain to keep a firm military foothold in the Middle East. Israel has as much right to defend itself against a violent aggressor as any nation."

Hale and members of his church attributed U.S. support of Israel to Jewish control of the U.S. government and media.

"White people in America don't have the power they think they have," Schlimmann said after the meeting. "We have a white president, but political action committees control him, and the most powerful PAC is the American Israeli Public Affairs Committee. They can make or break a candidate."

"Jews control the media and can portray a candidate in a positive or negative light. So the average person will vote for the Jew-approved candidate."

Sigel countered Schlimmann's claims and stated that there is more slanted journalism against the Jews than for them and that the majority of politicians subscribe to Christian beliefs.

"Also, AIPAC is a special interest group representing a specific block of American voters," Sigel said. "Its 'power' lies with the voters it represents — one person, one vote, same as all of us."

"The NRA actually has many more members and far more money than AIPAC, and yet there isn't any talk of gun owners controlling the government."

During Hale's anti-Semitic comments, Sigel and various audience members shouted their disapproval and noted historical evidence of Jewish persecution, such as the Holocaust.

"Anti-Semitism exists because Jews have made it exist," Hale said. "Throughout history, Jews have made themselves unwelcome." He also said that he prefers to use the term prosecution rather than persecution when discussing Jewish people.

Sigel summed up the majority of the audience's response to Hale with his comment, "You're a little man with a little mind and no soul," that was met by applause that filled the room.

After the speech, Sigel pointed out internal contradictions in Hale's arguments such as his support of the Arabs in the Middle East conflict given that he refers to them as "mud people" who are "closely related to great apes."

"What's interesting is the questions he did not answer. For example, one of our members asked him what alternative he had in mind if the federal government was replaced. The reason he did not answer is that his plan boils down to three things — fascism, genocide and eugenics," Sigel said.

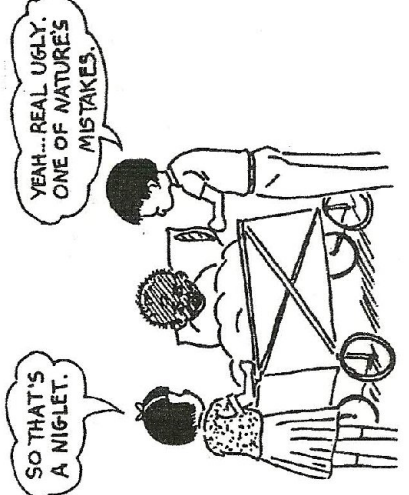

"A lot of the things he said I was surprised to hear come out of anyone's mouth," Pascal said. "He didn't have much to back up his claims, and he presented a lot of opinions as fact. He sounded really stupid when he spoke. He presented no facts, and his being non-intellectual really shocked me."

"You can see how he has to lie about things," Sigel said. "He's clever enough to use about two percent truth to ring through as credible and cover up the 98 percent lies. He will take a 'fact' out of context and distort its meaning to suit his agenda."

Schlimmann believes those who share Pascal's beliefs are misinformed and don't know any better.

"Some are like Ian [Sigel]," Schlimmann said. "Their whole purpose is to keep us from rising to power, because then the Jewish power in this country will come down. They want to stop us because they want to maintain the power that was originally and rightfully ours."

Heartland student Nick Sorak questioned the quality of the information Hale's followers believe. According to Sorak, when he spoke with WCC members after Hale's speech, they continuously made references to articles they had read.

*Contact Point Information from PM Hale*

In order to become a Church contact point, all that is necessary is for you to be a member in good standing, interested in staying in contact with other Creators, and promoting Creativity in your area. It is also recommended that you obtain a post office box, though this is not required. World Headquarters does not specifically vouch for every contact point listed other than that all listed are indeed addresses of members of the Church. Addresses sometimes change, so members should check each issue for any changes. RAHOWA!

Our Church does not condone or advocate violence or illegality in any way, but demands that our Constitutional right to freedom of religion be unconditionally upheld. As our religious Founder Ben Klassen said, "We have a non-violent religious movement. We have a comprehensive plan as to how to achieve a Whiter and Brighter World. Every step along the way is legal, constitutional and non-violent..." (On the Brink of a Bloody Racial War, p. 375). Pontifex Maximus is Rev. Matt Hale. Articles, artwork, and input are welcome.
