THE VIOLENCE OF A JEWISH-AMERICAN GOVERNMENT

by Pontifex Maximus Matt Hale

As the old saying goes, "the chickens have come home to roost". While the Jewish-controlled press and Jewish-controlled government expresses its "shock" at the attacks and the chickens that have come home are apparently headless at that, we whose eyes are unclouded by the tidal wave of Jewish propaganda understand full well that the events of September 11th, or events of a similar nature, are, rather than shocking or unexpected, the inevitable consequence of an absolutely insane foreign and domestic policy that for decades has had the interests of the Jews in mind rather than that of White people or even America. It was inevitable that the Arabs and their Muslim co-religionists would step up attacks upon the source of their grief--the pro-Jewish United States government--because it is the pro-Jewish United States government that has put the bullets in the Israeli guns that have shot down Palestinian children and otherwise bankrolled the parasitic state of Israel against its Arab neighbors. As long as Israeli aggression has the "American" stamp of approval upon it, no one can, or should, be surprised that the Arabs wish to strike a blow against the military and economic complex of this country. The attacks were therefore predictable.

It is not surprising, of course, that the Jewish-controlled media has completely omitted any mention of this real reason why the attacks occurred, instead being abuzz with clown upon clown (including the latest Bush chabbez goy to take the vaunted office of "President") saying that the "terrorists hate our freedom", are "jealous of our prosperity", and other such nonsense. Expect the Jew media and the slightly less Jew government to act in concert more than ever before. Expect the government to call for "serious discussion" about the civil liberties of "extremists", "potential terrorists", and the like. They will of course seek to get as much mileage out of September 11th as possible, but at the same time, the good news is that it will be way to really do anything to stifle the civil liberties or rights of those we Creators care about: we White people in general and we Racial Loyalists in particular. This is so because in this silly "new war on terrorism"--a terrorism that the government made inevitable in the first place and can never really eliminate--the government does not quite have the authority and mass approval necessary to fulfill any doomsday scenario in which every dissident is rounded up, etc. Instead, its own propaganda about "unity" and "resolve" and "belief in freedom" in the face of the attacks will serve to undermine its own objectives. They know that White people are still a majority in America and the backbone of any support for it, the government, that exists. They will therefore tread more lightly than they might otherwise.

Nonwhites, especially Middle Easterners and any that look like Middle Easterners, are automatically suspect despite government officials falling over themselves and protesting to the contrary. The attacks, in fact, have instantly aroused racist feeling in the backbone of the country--White people. Now we simply have to turn the wrath of the people against a related, and in fact, responsible, target: the Jews and those who serve them, the Jewish Occupational Government, while voicing our determination to do our part to stop such attacks from happening in the future. In the midst of the patriotism, it must be shown that to be a true patriot--a true lover of country--one must oppose the policies of a government that put the country in harms way. This is how we must proceed in the midst of all of the flag waving, we who do not wave the American flag. We must proceed as the people who are really serious about eliminating the cause of the terrorism while exposing and illustrating that the government's solution is simply to make more individuals hate the United States and inspire them to join the terrorist ranks.

We have an incredibly unique opportunity but this window of opportunity will be little worthwhile if we don't jump through it. People must be talked to in the streets. People must be handed literature explaining our position such as the one enclosed with this issue of The Struggle. The time is now, as always, for action. Fly the Creativity Flag everywhere as the flag of true hope and confidence. RAHOWA!

Next Public Meeting to be in Danville, Illinois on Saturday October 6th!

PM Hale will be speaking at the Danville Public Library, 319 N. Vermillion St. on Saturday October 6th at 2pm. The subject of his speech will be "Let's Quit Being Human Shields for Israel!" and will focus on how the only way to end the "terrorism" in America at the hands of sand niggers is to 1) end U.S. aid to Israel and 2) end the "open borders" immigration policy currently in place. Literature has already been distributed in Danville announcing the meeting and considering the subject, attendance should be good. It is at this time uncertain whether the meeting will be videotaped, so if you are interested in being seeing this first public meeting concerning the recent retaliatory attacks and can attend, do so indeed! RAHOWA!

Charges Dropped Against Brother William Ross!

As reported in last month's issue of The Struggle, Brother William Ross was arrested and charged at the Church's Decatur public meeting for criminal trespass (as well as "obstructing police") after he demanded to be allowed into the meeting room with a little disposable camera. However, the police have dropped the unfounded charges! RAHOWA!

Illinois Passes Law Against Using "Home Shoppers" As Tools To Deliver Literature

In a move clearly designed and publicly intended to thwart White Racial Loyalists from using "home shopper" magazines and newspapers as weight in the distribution of Racial Loyalist fliers door to door, the Illinois general assembly has passed a law making it a misdemeanor to do so. In the past, Creators and others have obtained the free home shopper publications, rolled fliers within them, rubber banded them, and distributed them by automobile. While the constitutionality of this new law is a bit questionable, Creators should be wary of utilizing such means until such time that the Church can mount an attack upon the law through the legal system itself. RAHOWA!

PM Hale Interviews on Columbus, Ohio Radio!

On Monday September 10th, PM Hale appeared on the "Sterling" radio show based in Columbus, Ohio for two hours (counting commercials). The show, in PM Hale's opinion, is one of the best ones that he has done and is quite instructive in how to answer questions from wily media personnel as well as the general public. He therefore particularly encourages each Creator, and especially ministers, to obtain a copy of this show. Only through the adamant spoken word can we ultimately win the hearts and minds of our people and this show will assist all Creators in this lofty mission! Send $5 ($6 outside U.S.) for your copy today. RAHOWA!

Champaign Public Meeting Available on Video Tape!

The Church's public meeting in Champaign, Illinois on Sunday September 9th is now available on video tape for $10 ($15 outside U.S.). The police at this meeting refused to silence the hecklers who seemed absolutely determined to make extreme asses out of themselves. Obtain this two hour video today and witness the success of forcing the issue through these public meetings.

The Church tentatively has already scheduled another meeting at the same location for November 3rd much to the dismay of library officials and the smug Jewish-controlled media. This date however may be changed. Be sure to call the hotline at (309) 699-0135 for any updates. This Champaign meeting may be the last public speech given by PM Hale this year as he concentrates on working towards adherent consolidation. As with the public meeting upcoming in Danville on October 6th, he will be speaking on "Let's Quit Being Human Shields for Israel." RAHOWA!

Creators Demonstrate!

Creators again took to the streets in East Peoria on Saturday September 22nd and demonstrated for four hours against aid to Israel, foreign aid, and called for the deportation of both Arabs and Jews from America and that the border must be closed. The demonstration was well received from passing motorists! RAHOWA!

PM Hale Deposed in "Wounded Nigger" Case

On Wednesday September 26 and Thursday September 27, PM Hale was deposed in Chicago in the "wounded nigger" lawsuit currently pending against the Church and him. This lawsuit was filed in April of last year and alleges a mythical "conspiracy" by PM Hale and the Church to deprive a nigger of its "civil rights" by virtue of Brother Ben Smith's shooting it over the 4th of July weekend two years ago.

PM Hale was deposed for well over twelve hours altogether. The deposition went extremely well and soon summary judgment motions designed to dismiss the case will be offered. The Church may make the transcript of the deposition available for a donation to further make the enemy's pathetic attacks upon it backfire. As usual, the attacks upon us by our enemies simply bounce off of our armor! RAHOWA!

PM Hale Produces Public Access Shows Discussing Attacks

On Sunday September 23rd, PM Hale and cameraman Brother Charles Grant produced two shows for public access television detailing the real explanation for the attacks upon Jew York City and Washington D.C. The first show has already aired on two public access stations and the second will air by the time this issue of The Struggle enters your hands. Though viewership is down (since the show hasn't been advertised in some time), the show has already been well-received by those who have watched it. Obtain your copy of the video tape today of both shows for only $10 ($15 outside U.S.). Obtain this video for your personal use, or perhaps use it to inaugurate White Revolution on public access in your area! If you are wanting to do the latter, be sure to enclose a note so that Headquarters can provide you with a checklist to help your going about it. RAHOWA!

A Message from Reverend Kenneth Molyneux

I have produced a powerful public access show called The Creator Hour that can be obtained for a ten dollar donation for one episode, or only forty dollars for 6 shows. Please send for your copies today! Send to 649 Blaine Ave. Akron, OH 44310. RAHOWA!

New Creativity T-shirt!

The Church has launched upon a special fundraiser: providing a new Creativity T-shirt for only $10 ($15 outside U.S.)! The shirts are WHITE with our logo and the words "Mobilize Nature's Finest" on front and on the back is our name and address. We have one hundred of these shirts now available and PM Hale wants one hundred Creators wearing this great display of Creativity pride immediately! Due to our receiving a special price on the shirts, only sizes small through extra large are available. Order yours today! RAHOWA!

"The Facts" Temporarily Out of Print

The third printing of the Church's awesome document for mass distribution, "Facts that the Government and the Media Don't Want You to Know" is now, unfortunately, out of print. However, the 4th Printing, containing much new and updated information, is being worked on at this time and should be available soon!

In four and a half years time, Creators and other White Racial Loyalists have distributed 300,000 copies of the three prior printings of this truth-telling document. Quite an exceptional accomplishment but one that will be easily matched and superseded in the future!

When the 4th Printing of "The Facts" is in, The Struggle will be sure to carry this information. Further updates may be had on the hotline message, (309) 699-0135. RAHOWA!

The Third Edition of The Creator Membership Manual Now Available!

As members and official supporters already know since they received their copy with their September issue of The Struggle, the Third Edition of The Creator Membership Manual is now available. This edition supersedes the second edition and contains additional and revised information. All are now welcome to obtain a copy of this Manual for $5 ($7 outside U.S.). RAHOWA!

The Three Steps of Islamic Conquest by Rev. Olivier Devallez of France

On September 11, the United States Jewish Occupational Government (JOG) got a taste of its own medicine when fundamentalist Muslims crashed hijacked planes into various emblematic buildings (its financial, political, and military powers) in New York and Washington. It got a taste of its own medicine not only because Belgrade and Skopje got the same treatment from U.S. bombers a little more than a year before, but because, while being the staunch ally of the bandit State of Israel, it is in fact supporting the most backward of Islamic countries in their attempt to make of Europe a new haven for Muslims.

That Osama bin Laden was trained by the CIA to help Afghans get rid of White Russians is no surprise, as bin Laden is a Saudi and Saudi Arabia is the strongest supporter of the U.S. JOG in Middle-East. Not a surprise either that this Sunnite state is the one actually backing and financing most of the Sunnite groups and mosques in Europe (while Shi'ites, like the Iranians and Southern Iraqis, are scarce in Europe). Due to its economic interests (and the ones of the Bush family) in this part of the world, the U.S. JOG is supporting the most primitive of Islamic regimes, and when the U.S. JOG realized that you cannot marry a carp with a pig (i.e. support the bandit state of Israel in conjunction with Muslims), it was too late.

To understand what is now threatening America, as well as what is threatening Europe and all of the White world, let's have a look at the Three Steps of Islamic Conquest as expressed by the Koran:

- 1) DAR AL-SULH (temporary peace) When the Muslims are a minority in a country, as they are still in America and less and less in Europe thanks to US assistance to Bosnians, Kosovars, Albanians and all the other Muslim aliens flooding our mainland by the thousands every day, Muslims keep a very low profile and try not to appear as a threat to the local peoples. Muslims proselytize without the local "infidels" having any objection to raise. Mosques and Koranic schools are built up in the name of "freedom of religion" (such a "freedom" being, of course, strictly prohibited in Islamic countries, where only Islam is allowed).
- 2) DAR AL-HARB (war zone) When the Muslims are numerous enough or when the local peoples start to object to their more and more obvious presence, the country becomes a war zone. That is what is beginning to happen in Europe, although the September 11 attacks were not, or better, not yet. You have perfect examples of the Dar al-Harb in today's Kosovo, Macedonia, and Chechnia, once again with the full support of the U.S. JOG.
- 3) DAR AL-ISLAM (reign of Islam) The final step, when Muslims finally overcome the local peoples and that Islam, the Koran, and the Shari'a (Koranic law) rule over the country. Once again, the September 11 attacks were aimed at the U.S. JOG due to its staunch support of the bandit State of Israel even though it is supporting Islam in Europe for contemptible economic and political reasons (which makes it appear as a low-life scum in the eyes of Muslims). Muslims are already over 10% of the population in France and it present trends continue, will be over 30% in just one generation. So, just let's leave Arabs and Jews settle their hash without interfering anymore and let's use the money saved to protect, expand and advance the White Race and the White Race alone! RAHOWA!

Some thoughts on the future gathering of Church members

By Brother Rob Freeman

I was very inspired that Reverend Hale is working towards gathering Creators in one town. It is urgently necessary to create a model of White society that will serve as an example to the rest of our people.

Our society has been deeply and broadly Judaized. Culture and social relations have been "remade" by Jews operating in the fields of psychology, psychiatry, family counseling, and all organs of mass propaganda including TV, radio and written publications. Nearly every aspect of life in America has been remolded by Jewish influence. By gathering together in a town in America, we can sift out Judaized practices and Judaized thinking, and figure out how to return to our Aryan (noble) roots.

The Perversion and Commodification of reproduction and sex by Jews

When White societies were free of Jewish influence, they channeled reproductive powers into the breeding and upbringing of future generations of White children. People married when they were young and fresh and put their energies into productive and reproductive labor. This produced decent European societies and was the foundation of civilization as we know it. Jewish entertainment media and Jewish consumer capitalism has worked to direct our reproductive powers into an endless pursuit of expensive pleasures and degeneracy. This profits the Jews and sharply reduces the occurrence of happy White families. There is less actual sex and far fewer happy relationships, and lots of perversion, prostitution, and pornography.

Another reason the possibility of happy relationships is reduced is the transient nature of modern life. We never get to know people really well before we or they move on. When a Creator society settles in a town, we can hope that our children will grow up together and happy relationships and happy families will naturally ensue.

Racial Loyalist businesses

Plenty of Whites want to stay White and feel inward revulsion when they have to drop off their child at a multi-racial school or daycare. Two potential businesses for the Creator society will be daycare and private, members-only playgrounds. It is still legal to privately discriminate and we need to utilize this to the hilt. The day care will be a word of mouth business and it will naturally be only for non-Jewish Whites. Wait till you see how many liberal parents rush to take their children to the Creator day care! The members-only playground can be an extension of the daycare--a fenced in, well-made playground open only to members. The Creator society will provide the opportunity for White parents to take their children to Whites-only settings.

Traditional practices versus Modern practices

The Creator society will not be a total rehashing of the "good old days" that never were. However, the good old days had many useful techniques and technologies which we aim to recover for our present practices.

The primary virtue of the good old days was autarky. Instead of describing it myself, I will provide the dictionary definition of autarky: au-tar-ky or au-tar-ky (ôtärk) 1. A policy of national self-sufficiency and non-reliance on imports or economic aid. 2. A self-sufficient region or country.

The Creator society will not aim for total autarky; however, it will be one of those things that we will strive for as much as possible. There are three ways to increase the autarky of a community. One is by making our own goods. The second is by decreasing our intake of consumer goods. The third is by setting up our society to require less resources to live. As for making our own goods, we will go after the low hanging fruit first--that is, we will produce our own food and build our own houses and structures. If someone in the community wants to take up an industry like sewing clothes, we will of course patronize this person, but just supplying our own food will be a great start.

Reviving European culture as a unifying goal will be cost effective in the long run

Recreation should emphasize human power and human effort. Playing our own instruments and singing. European folk dancing. Team sports such as soccer, wrestling, and boxing matches. Community theater productions. These things require some initial effort and instruction and Creator families will have to take their kids to arts instruction in the local city until we raise a generation of our own that has developed expertise in all these things. We must face the facts--we are a generation of "TV babies," stripped of our birthrights, of our European heritage and our European culture. We have a lot of work ahead of us and not just for our children but for ourselves as well. Adult Creators should at least learn how to play a few tunes on a piano, or learn how to do European folk dances, so that we set the example for our kids. At first it's painful to do the arts if you grew up without it, but eventually you will pick it up and it's absolutely essential that we take our kids to instruction in the arts. My daughter is three years old and I take her to Dalcroze Eurythmics (musical training for toddlers), ballet class, and gymnastics. When she is five, I will be adding cello lessons and soccer in addition to everything she does now. With her basic music and dance training, I hope for her to learn many European styles of both music and dance so that she can be a vessel to keep these things alive through the generations. If nobody learns these things and passes them on to the next generation of White people, these practices can be forgotten and die. In fact, I will teach my daughter that preserving and passing on European music and dance and culture is one of her primary reasons for living.

This may seem like it's off the subject, but the fact is that "high effort recreation" is economical. Once you are good at it, it is very inexpensive and can even be profitable. The musician and dancer can be paid for both teaching and performing, all while "keeping their day jobs." Martial arts, for example, is among the oldest professions and there will always be people willing to pay to learn the martial arts.

One thing that we can expect in getting our children trained in the arts is that there will be a lot of Jews to deal with. We have to face a certain fact of life: the Jews have completely taken over arts and culture in America. Whites in America have been occupied with war, sports, and making money and have largely neglected the arts. Meanwhile, the Jews have taken up this sector to an outright monopoly position. That is why I say that there is no way out but through the Jews. In raising a generation of Creators who are versed in the arts, we will have to deal with a lot of Jewish music teachers, art teachers, theater directors, and acting coaches. There are some Whites in these fields and we will do business with them whenever possible. Some of the Jews may refuse to deal with us, just as the Jews in the Decatur, Illinois orchestra threw out Reverend Hale, but it will be more difficult for them to turn away our children because it threatens their scam of playing the "eternal outsider," and if we force them to turn our children away because of our beliefs, it will serve our ideological purposes. If they want to keep us out of the arts because we believe in The White Man's Bible and they believe in the Talmud, so be it!

When the Creator society has its own musicians, dancers, acting coaches and stage directors, we'll have no more need of Jews, but this will take at least a generation, by my estimation. As our 7th Commandment states, "Phase out all dealings with the Jews as soon as possible."

In this way, Creators will start to re-colonize the arts life of the nearby city and start to recover it from the Jews. We need not worry about Jews corrupting us or corrupting our children. It is they who will fear our corrupting society. They will fear our retaking our culture and our arts but they can't do anything against us without acting "intolerant". This plan will be a nightmare for the Jews. They are quite comfortable and smug in their monopoly over the cultural and artistic life of America's cities and will get a rude awakening. In carrying out this plan, we will not become urbanized and soft like Jews are. We will take the best of both worlds--strive for our autarkic, pastoral White community while participating in the cultural and artistic life of the city--kind of like Garrison Keillor but without the deracinated wimpiness.

Setting up our society to require less resources

We will have our own residences but we should try to ride bicycles to work and/or to carpool with Econoline vans. An Econoline van can take a dozen or more people to work. Splitting the cost of such a van among twelve people will be far more cost effective than owning private cars. It will be some sacrifice of "freedom" to drive around but the cost savings will be more than a return of freedom. Shopping trips and outings will be planned together as we all have just one vehicle. This will build community and reward us in cost savings. The less we spend, the more free we are of the Jewish debt paper system. Thrift is power!

The World Church of the Creator will be a hardcore pro-bicycling lobby in the town. We will be demonstrating almost every weekend. So long as we are demonstrating for Racial Loyalty, we might as well demonstrate for bicycle paths and bicycle lanes on all streets. The reasons we will give for bicycle spaces will be safety for children, health, and fuel economy. This is a very White political issue and success in it will greatly improve the quality of life of that town. In Scandinavia, it's quite common for high earning professionals to bicycle to work, and nearly every road in the Scandinavian countries has a bike path along it. Creators will be present at every town hall meeting and though our perennial calls for bike paths will be viewed as one of the eccentricities of our community (like the Amish's funny clothes and horse drawn buggies), the ultimate wisdom of bike paths will not be lost on the more perceptive people in the community, and if we succeed in getting bike paths, everybody in the town who benefits will be forced to think about how our Church was responsible.

However, if we get our bike paths around the town, we will have less need of even the Econoline vans and this will be a very good thing. We'll keep some vehicles, but we'll try to do with as little as possible. There are sheltered bicycle trailers to carry children. There are utility bicycles that can haul two passengers and a couple hundred pounds of cargo. The only reason we can't do almost everything with bicycles is because of the danger of car-dominated roads.

Achieving a more autarkic society will free us from the drudgery of earning jew-bucks from employers who are not Racial Loyalists, free us up from buying the goods and services of our mortal enemies, and free us up to be Creators! We will have more time to devote to building our community, to public demonstrations, to have more children, and to participate in and influence the wider society.

Making a society within society is not without precedent in America. The three examples I will discuss are the Amish, the Mormons, and the Jews.

The Amish

The obvious weakness of the Amish is that they follow the Jew Bible. Pacifism and purposeful restraint from gathering power in society is another weakness. Some may argue that it's precisely this restraint and pacifism that sustains their society, but we must remember that the real goal of the Amish is to continue being Amish. However, the Jews may decide to force them to race mix someday and they have no defenses against it. Therefore, the Amish way of life may be ultimately unsustainable because of its pacifism and belief in the Jewish Bible. Our goal is to take the country back from the Jews and further the survival and expansion of the White race. When it's time for our children to fly the coop and take their place among the ruling classes of America, they will bring their Creator upbringing with them and continue the work of converting salvageable Whites to Nature's Eternal Religion.

The strength of the Amish is their material practices that lend to autarky. We will make use of many Amish practices such as the use of draft horses instead of tractors, restrained levels of farm production, and simplicity of village life. However, unlike the Amish, we will not hide from the world or fear the sophistication of the knowledge of the city. We must walk a fine line between maintaining one foot in the urban arts and culture scene, and one foot in our White, pastoral way of life.

The Mormons

The Mormons breed a lot of White people and they have a very strong institution in the Mormon church. The Mormon church is politically and socially strong in the way that the institution of International Jewry is strong, though on a much smaller scale than the latter. The weakness of the Mormons is that they are not open Racial Loyalists and they believe in the Jewish Bible. They have some skepticism towards the modern age and the Jewish TV, but not nearly enough. They have surrendered on their holiest principles, including polygamy and ordaining White priests only. Therefore, their long term prospects are not ensured and indeed, the seeds of collective suicide have already sprouted in the Mormon church.

Jews

When the Jews infest a nation, they go right for the throat. They employ tribalistic business practices to take over whole industries, especially vice, entertainment, and "culture." They take the valid, native culture and pervert it to their own ends and ultimately drive out the original peoples and monopolize it for themselves. In doing so, they alienate the native population from their own art forms. Hence Goebbels' saying, "When I hear the world culture, I reach for my gun." This is why it's so important for us to boldly take back our own art forms--to yank them away from the Jews and to "re-Aryanize" the arts. Since the Jews monopolize arts, we will at times want to hold our noses, or reach for our gun, but we must suppress this until we have gotten our Aryan art forms back. When we have a vibrant arts and culture scene that is Judenrein, then we will be free of the Jews.

We will also employ tribalistic business practices. We will go after Jewish-controlled industries, like entertainment and liquor. Since Jews control whole industries, Creators should look to "muscling in on Jewish turf" as much as possible. When Creators have a cohesive society, we'll be able to start working on this in earnest.

Essentially, we are going to use the Jewish models for going after Jewish power. The arts, mass political movements, and tribalistic business practices have been the flying wedges of Jewish power. We will start using these same tools against the Jews. Since we possess a doctrine of greater truth and are Nature's aristocrats, wronged by the Jewish parasites, and since the Jews have grown complacent and have become "the insiders" while their power depends on being "outsiders," we will mount a major challenge to their entrenched power. If the Jews are stupid enough to strike at us with undemocratic, extra-judicial and terrorist means, as is their wont, it will be their fatal mistake. If they draw first blood and attack our community, many many more Whites will wake up and the Jews will ultimately find America even less hospitable than the Gaza Strip.

This is why I look forward to Creators having our own town. When the European culture soul is awakened and the doctrine of Nature's Eternal religion is put into practice in a functioning community, it will spread at the grass roots and there will be no stopping it. It is what we need to do to get the ball rolling. RAHOWA!

Report on the 16th Annual Northwest Rendezvous by Reverend Slim Deardorff

Although we did not have one hundred in attendance, there were quite a few new attendees whom we had not met personally before which was great. One cannot get to really know someone by only letters and email. You need to meet them personally for awhile and even then you may not really know them.

Anyway, we had another great time with speeches, recreation, and general Creative camaraderie. We did miss our PM who was not able to attend this year, although he did send an ambassador, Rev. John Schlismann, to read a speech from him. RAHOWA!

Poll: Separation OK, Say Young Adults

Washington (AP)--About half of the young adults said racial separation in America is all right "as long as everyone has equal opportunity."

In the poll released Monday in Washington by Hamilton College of Clinton, NY, 50.3 percent said they strongly or somewhat agreed with the statement: "It's OK if the races are basically separate from one another as long as everyone has equal opportunities." At the same time, 47.3 percent of those polled strongly or somewhat disagreed with the statement.

The poll, co-sponsored by the NAACP and Zogby International, surveyed 1,001 randomly selected people ages 18 to 29 over one week in April and had a margin of error of plus or minus three percent points.

"This indicates that many young Americans are comfortable with the notion of a segregated society", said Phillip Klinkner, director of the Arthur Levitt Public Affairs Center at Hamilton College. "This is a cause of concern since many school districts are dismantling their integration efforts at a time when new data show rising levels of school segregation", he said.

Letters

Dear Comrades,

I'm in full agreement with Pontifex Maximus Hale. We must consolidate--move all our Brothers and Sisters to one central location. Right now, we have members all over the country. The question is, are we making a major impact in these areas? The answer, I think, is no. Now don't get me wrong. Yes, we are getting the message out, but we are not turning enough of the White Race into our ranks. The reason is because we are spread too thin. We don't have a strong member turnout at public meetings. We must unite and make this move to central Illinois to show our strength and that we intend to make a stand for our great Race.

Yes, I understand that the cost and time will be great to achieve this goal. If we don't make this move now, look at the cost in the long run. Everyday we lose more and more of a foothold in this country. We see it everywhere. The mud races are in every aspect of our lives. They are in the media, schools, workplace, neighborhoods, and in our political system. Because of this, our Race is being pushed towards the brink of extinction. Let's change this. RAHOWA!

-Brother Martin Hornbeck

Brothers and Sisters!

On July 20, 28AC, I filed a civil rights lawsuit in Florida concerning the state prisons' there violation of our religious freedoms. First and foremost this suit regards our right to religious tapes, films, and books coming from Church Headquarters. Secondary issues concern our right to a religious study group being held in a non-denominational part of the prison to be conducted at least twice weekly, a religious daily diet, and recognition of our religious holidays and our diet served on these days.

Copies of this civil suit will be made available to Reverend Kirk Schmidt if you wish to follow my progress. I'm sure he will provide you with your own copy for a little donation and you can reach him at his contact point address for more information. All paperwork filed by me and the state's responses will be made available to Rev. Schmidt and hopefully will act as a how-to guide for Brothers and Sisters in other states. Being new to civil law, I'm sure that I will stumble along the way to our ultimate victory. However, my mistakes will be corrected along and Creators will learn from my mistakes and avoid making them in their own cases. It's time to get the ball rolling with our prison ministries far and wide and I hope to soon see more letters like this from other states in the near future.

Here are some tips for getting started...First, attempt to get our religion approved in your state prison by finding out from your prison's chaplain how it's done. Second, legally speaking, Creativity is just like every other religion--if you feel your religious freedoms are being stepped on, start a separate grievance process for every issue. Third, once these things two things have been completed (without satisfaction from the administration), you're ready for the courts. Fourth, file suit in federal court rather than state court as you are likely to get better results. Fifth, as you go through steps 1-4, go to your prison law library and get the lawyer's address book and look up civil lawyers who are in your area or the area near the courthouse where you will file your suit and start writing them all until you can find one who will handle your case for you. You can get lucky!

In closing, please watch The Struggle for updates on this case and remember that this is not the first case we've won and nor will it be the last! The future is ours! RAHOWA!

Storm of controversy

White supremacist addresses racial killings, Chief

BY JASON CANTONE
Metro editor

Matt Hale entered the Champaign Public Library on Sunday to the sound of approximately 80 people laughing.

Cries of "What a weird-looking guy!" were followed by applause and more laughter as Hale arrived 10 minutes late and stood in silence for two minutes, waiting for the right moment to start his two-hour speech titled "Getting white youth into the white racist cause."

Everyone in attendance was asked to walk through a metal detector and have all their bags checked before they entered the library auditorium.

"It was pretty ridiculous," said Gene LaVine, junior in communications.

Matt Hale is the Pontifex Maximus for the World Church of the Creator, a white supremacist group. The group became a household name in the summer of 1999 when Benjamin Smith, a former member of the church, went on a shooting rampage in Illinois and Indiana. Over the Fourth of July weekend, Smith killed Ricky Byrdson, a former basketball coach at Northwestern, while he was walking outside his home in Skokie, Ill. Smith also killed Won-Joon Yoon, an Indiana University student, as he left his church. In addition, Smith shot at six Orthodox Jews walking home from Sabbath services, an Asian-American couple in a car and three African Americans, two of whom were wounded. He then committed suicide.

Responding to yells of "You're a murderer," Hale addressed the Benjamin Smith murder spree.

"You can dance on the graves of Ricky 'Byrdshit' all you want, but we have no concern for him," Hale shouted. "We must have concern only for us, the white people."

In an interview Tuesday, Hale compared the Benjamin Smith situation with the abortion issue.

"I don't see why people can blame me for the killings," Hale said Tuesday. "I never hear anyone blaming the pope for the bombings of abortion clinics."

Hale also addressed the University's embattled mascot — Chief Illiniwek.

"I am against racist mascots like the University's Chief," Hale said. "Instead, I think the University should use a good symbol like the white man. The white man would be a better college mascot."

Jeff VonHaight, of Champaign, arrived at the rally with a T-shirt bearing the confederate flag, a confederate flag belt and an iron cross with a Nazi Swastika around his neck. "I didn't dress-up for today," VonHaight said. "This is how I am."

VonHaight said that he does not agree with Hale describing blacks as the "mud race," but considers himself a supporter. VonHaight first met Hale 10 years ago. "Believe it or not, he got beat-up a lot," VonHaight said.

Some protesters like Rachel Kimball, junior in engineering, encouraged everyone to participate in a silent protest.

"It enraged me that he's here," Kimball said. "However, the yelling and screaming will only give Hale what he wants."

During the speech, Kimball held a sign that read "Love Thy Neighbor" above her head and mouthed "Jesus loves you" to Hale supporters.

On the other hand, protesters like Michael Frazin, junior in engineering and member of Tagar, a Jewish activist organization, voiced his protests.

Tagar members handed out "The Facts That Matt Hale Doesn't Want You To Know," an attack on Hale's pamphlet "Facts That Government and the Media Don't Want You To Know," which was banned during his Schaumburg, Ill., rally but approved by the Champaign Police Department.

Champaign Police postponed the rally by eight days because of concerns that they did not receive adequate time to prepare.

Jim Ryan, sergeant for the Champaign police, estimated that more than 150 police officers attended the rally. With almost 20 officers stationed inside the auditorium, the number of community members equalled the number of police officers when the speech ended at 9 p.m. Throughout the speech, many community members were asked to leave after they stood-up. Others decided to leave on their own.

Hale's last rally in Schaumburg, Ill., resulted in three arrests of protesters and the injury of one of Hale's supporters.

On Friday, Champaign Mayor Jerry Schweighart issued a press release stating that although Hale is speaking in the community without any invitation to do so, the Constitution requires the city to defend his right to speak. Schweighart also advised those in attendance to ignore Hale's performance.

"The mayor wants people to accept whatever politicians say," Hale said. "He doesn't care about white people. At the very least, I made people think today. We have all accomplished something here."

Groups use voices, prayers against Hale

BY LISA SCHENCKER
The Daily Illini

More than 100 people lined Healey Street on Sunday night to protest, pray, chant and sing in opposition to World Church of the Creator leader and white supremacist Matthew Hale.

Individuals and representatives of various activist groups began arriving at the Champaign Public Library, where Hale spoke Sunday night, shortly after 6 p.m. About 100 people were allowed into the library. Roughly 150 remained outside.

While groups such as Tagar, a campus Jewish activist organization made it inside the library holding Israeli flags and signs of protest, other religious groups remained outside of the building.

As Hale spoke inside the library, representatives of local churches and religious groups gathered outside the orange fencing surrounding the library to pray and sing.

"We're not really here to protest," said Minister Larry Jones of the New Free Will Baptist Church. "We're more here to pray. Prayer can bring change to anything."

Roughly 20 members of Jones' church attended the event.

Members of other churches and religious organizations stood in a circle and sang "Amazing Grace." Community religious leaders spoke against hate and for love and cooperation to a crowd of about 40 people. At about 7:30 p.m., the religious groups marched to the parking lot singing "We Shall Overcome" before leaving the event.

Members of the Anti-Racist Action group, donning black clothing and bandannas over their faces, stood where the religious leaders had been and spoke against Hale shortly after religious groups left.

An ARA member who declined to be identified said the bandannas were to hide members' identities to keep the "police from using them against us."

Joining the ARA were groups including the Urbana-Champaign Unity and Struggle, and the School for Designing a Society.

Aaron Love, a Unity and Struggle member spoke before a group of mostly college-age protesters.

"I'm basically here because white power and fascist organizations are growing throughout the world," Love said. "We believe racism can be countered by education and counterpresence."

Another Unity and Struggle member who spoke was Matthew Quest of Champaign.

Using strong language, Quest spoke against Hale and suggested that justice would be Hale "being hit with a two-by-four upside the head."

At roughly 8:30 p.m., the group of protesters walked to Green Street to await Hale's departure from the library. Police formed lines behind the fencing as protesters shouted "No Nazis, no KKK, no fascist U.S.A." and "Whose streets? Our streets."

Though Quest was unsure of the groups' intentions as they awaited Hale, he suggested that "using whatever means necessary to defend our community is not a crime."

At 9:15 p.m., Love announced to the group that Hale had left through a different exit and the group slowly dispersed and left.

Racist leader to speak at library

Police prepare for Hale's stop on lecture tour

By J. PHILIP BLOOMER
News-Gazette Staff Writer

CHAMPAIGN — White supremacist Matt Hale is coming to Champaign for a 7 p.m. speech Sept. 9 at the Champaign Public Library.

Champaign is the latest stop on a lengthy lecture tour by the controversial leader of the East Peoria-based World Church of the Creator. He's been on the circuit since at least March, speaking at public libraries and city halls across the country and in Illinois.

In this area, he has spoken recently in Decatur, Springfield, Bloomington, Clinton and Mattoon. Last week, clashes broke out between Hale and opponents at a speech in Schaumburg. Three arrests were made.

Hale was originally scheduled to speak here Saturday, but Champaign police officials got the event rescheduled in order to have more time to prepare, said Deputy Chief John Murphy.

The library will be closed except for the auditorium.

Murphy said to expect a large police presence.

"Hale has well-defined First Amendment rights we have to allow him to exercise," Murphy said. "But obviously people opposed to his position have rights too. Our job is to allow them to safely and orderly present their opposition to what Hale has to offer."

Murphy said a significant force will be on hand and ground rules will be established at the outset to allow everybody to participate safely if they choose.

"Our feeling is that the best way to make a statement in opposition is to make this a nonevent by not showing up," Murphy said.

That's what Tracy Parsons plans to do. The president of the Champaign County Urban League said attendance only gives Hale more credibility, and certainly more media coverage.

He said he would prefer that city leaders issue a statement saying, "This is not what our community is all about."

"I pretty much dismiss him as a nut," Parsons said. "I can deal with him. I know where I stand. The lines are clearly drawn."

"It's the people who smile at you to your face and call you

Don't use your speech to silence another

While it might be true that the things Matt Hale has to say are offensive, he has the absolute right to say them, and I am disgusted that seemingly no one has stood up to say that. There are letters condemning him for his views, pictures of students screaming at him during his speech and metal detectors installed to protect him from the guns of students crusading in the name of "tolerance." How abhorrent, how utterly repulsive. I am rarely so ashamed to be an American as when incidents like this occur. Has everyone forgotten that this country was founded on the principle of freedom — freedom from oppression, freedom from government censorship, freedom to speak one's mind?

There is zero justification for preventing him from saying what he believes, for who are we to say that what he believes is wrong? True, we might believe different things, but what gives us the right to say that our beliefs are correct, and his are not? Galileo was imprisoned in his own house for speaking what he believed; Christ was crucified; millions of Jews were burned, shot and beaten for their beliefs. Are we reverting back to those unenlightened times? Are we no better than Hitler, no more tolerant than the Romans?

If we disagree with people like Matt Hale, then fine. But at least let us respect him for having the strength to stand up for his beliefs, no matter how odious those beliefs might be. As Voltaire said, "I may disapprove of what you say, but I will defend to the death your right to say it."

"nigger" behind your back that worry me more," he said.

Library Director George Scheetz said that while he doesn't relish hosting the event, there's really no better place than a public library.

"From a personal perspective, this is the point of a democracy," Scheetz said. "The public library is an appropriate public forum for people to express their views, even if we don't agree with them."

Hale's presence in Champaign-Urbana is nothing new.

Last year, someone inserted handbills from Hale's church inside copies of The Daily Illini and a few copies of The News-Gazette in newspaper racks.

Hale captured national headlines in 1999 when follower Benjamin Smith — a former Morton resident and former University of Illinois student — shot to death two people, including a former Northwestern University basketball coach, wounded nine others and then killed himself during Independence Day weekend.

Among those wounded in Smith's trip through Champaign-Urbana was a UI student of Asian descent.

The UI law school also has been leafleted with hate literature from the World Church of the Creator.

Hale's speech draws a crowd of his opponents

■ No arrests made during 2-hour talk by white supremacist

By J. PHILIP BLOOMER and TIM FITCHELL

CHAMPAIGN — Matt Hale got the theater he wanted, if not the recruits.

The white supremacist from East Peoria came to town to preach unity for white people, but succeeded mainly in uniting those in opposition to him.

His speech at the Champaign Public Library on Sunday night consisted mainly of him spewing racial epithets and audience members heckling back, something like a two-hour Jerry Springer show.

Aside from violent words, there was no violence and while some opponents were escorted out of the library auditorium for getting out of their chairs, there were no arrests.

Close to 100 audience members of different races filled the auditorium, while about 20 members of the media and an equal number of police in riot gear observed. Several streets around the library were blocked off as police from Champaign, Urbana, the University of Illinois, Parkland College, Champaign County and the Illinois State Police prepared for every eventuality.

Hale arrived about 7:15, accompanied by two white-bereted escorts in black shirts and fatigues and carrying the red banner of Hale's World Church of the Creator. Five other supporters also accompanied him.

The audience laughed at Hale's entrance.

"I've given many a speech and no laughing is going to shut me up," Hale said.

but I accomplished what I set out to do, which is lift my voice for my people," he said.

More than 225 people assembled outside of temporary fences north of the library as Hale arrived to sing hymns and to speak out about racism. While some hecklers cursed at Hale and his supporters as he arrived on an MTD van, the event was largely completed without incident.

Two area religious organizations, the Ministerial Alliance of Champaign-Urbana and the Religious Leaders for Community Care, held a joint prayer vigil outside the library.

Approximately 100 people of various races sang hymns arm in arm, quoted Scriptures, and spoke out about racial harmony during the 40-minute prayer vigil. "We have come together to witness to our love of God and of one another, and to pray together for the healing of our community, our nation and our world," said the Rev. Dr. Evelyn Underwood, vice president of the ministerial alliance and associate pastor of the New Freewill Baptist Church in Champaign.

After the prayer vigil dispersed, about 125 protesters remained, with many of them giving speeches about racism. Others carried signs reading, "Hatred Not Welcome Here," "C-U: No Place for Hatred," and "Get the Hale out of my city."

"This guy's fringe racism needs to be put in its place," said Tom Bassett of Urbana.

black man replied, "We don't hate you, man. You're just ignorant."

And so it went for two hours, though usually not with as much tact. Midway through, about half the audience got up and left in protest.

Toward the end, Hale said the evening was a success.

"This has been a difficult speech ...

Please see HALE, B-3

Some of Hale's supporters were also on hand to show support for his views.

"I'm supporting my race and my people," said Alan Gunderson of Champaign.

Jeff Van Haight of Champaign wore a Confederate flag T-shirt and a necklace bearing the Nazi cross to show his solidarity with Hale.

"I like Matt Hale's ideas, but I don't agree with some of the violence some of his supporters have shown," said Van Haight.

As Hale's speech concluded, a number of protesters gathered south of the library to meet him. But the MTD van carrying Hale quickly turned around on Randolph Street and sped away to the north.

The protesters than dispersed without incident.

OUR OPINIONS

Freedom to hate

Matt Hale, a self-proclaimed white racist, is coming to Champaign to present his odious views on race and religion to anyone who cares to listen.

What should be done about it? Nothing really. People are free to attend his Sept. 9 appearance at the public library and listen quietly or differ politely. They're also free to ignore it altogether.

What they should not do is create a strife-ridden circus that elevates the event in importance, puts public safety at risk or makes the job of police officers more difficult.

After all, this is America. The First Amendment to the U.S. Constitution guarantees the right of free speech to anyone. That means that Hale is as free to speak as the president of the League of Women Voters.

The beautiful thing about the constitutional guarantee of free speech is that it's meant to protect even the most revolting expression of views. Everyone is entitled to have his say, and people can pick and choose what they believe in the marketplace of ideas.

To some, that concept goes too far, and it would not be surprising if people who feel that way show up and try to shout Hale down. But one set of goons taking on another set of goons is no way to do business in a free society.

Hale may be selling white supremacy and Jewish inferiority, but hardly anyone is buying. He offers a soulless, hateful world view that could never be self-fulfilling or life-sustaining. The handful of supporters he's attracted are pathetic, deserving of equal parts of pity and scorn.

So if you're curious, go see Matt Hale and take a good, long look. He won't make a favorable impression. If you're not interested, stay home and read a book or go to a movie. After all, this is America, and the choice is yours.

of his backyard in Goldsboro — targeted 10 county boroughs for potential marches and other activity.

The fact that he lived here only made the county less inclined to be more tolerant of minorities, Van Dyke said.

Before the creation of the Internet, geography played a large role in hate groups, Van Dyke said. But that has changed. Now, promoting such groups has grown to a whole new level.

"No matter who you are, or where you are, the message of hate is going to get to you," she said.

Since the York County District Attorney's Office re-opened the 1969 race riots murder investigations two years ago, a group called the National Alliance, which aims to create a white homeland, has spread its message at least twice in York — once by putting recruiting stickers on signs in the city, and once by passing out fliers to a few neighborhoods in the city and just outside it.

"Honestly, when the investigation first started, there were a lot of people anticipating more problems," said Cathy Ash, executive director of the York Human Relations Commission and director of the newly formed Ad Hoc Coalition. "That's why the Justice Department got involved in the first place."

A federal mediator from the Department of Justice's branch of the Community Relations Service began assisting York soon after the Coalition was formed.

Throughout York County from 1988 to 2000, there were 11 episodes of hate-group activity, Van Dyke said. Most of the groups have been white supremacist groups from out of the county.

In 2000, there were 31 identified hate groups in Pennsylvania, Van Dyke said. Two of those groups have branches in York County.

One, called the Hammerskin Nation, is organized in Hanover and is part of the most violent and best-organized racist skin-head group in the United States, according to the Southern Law Poverty Center. A number of its national members have been convicted of harassing, beating or murdering minorities. Many

Hate groups embedded in York's history

TASK FORCE WATCHING

The Pennsylvania Inter-Agency Task Force on Civil Terrorism met in York on Thursday and gave a public presentation about its efforts to prevent and respond to bias-related incidents.

Don Weliver, who works for the York County Office of Emergency Management and coordinates the task force, said its meetings move around the state, and he was glad the meeting was in York this time. He thinks the information was more meaningful because of the ongoing discussions in York County during the 1990s as to what to do about the recently-formed Ad Hoc Coalition holds a community-wide dialogue this fall. It's a new idea that might be helpful in other communities. Weliver said. Task force members share strategies for dealing with and responding to hate groups. For more information on the task force, check out the Web site www.stpphas.org.

Ann Van Dyke says philosophies of white power became embedded in York County in the late 1960s when a white supremacist created a branch of the Ku Klux Klan here.

"We should never underestimate the impact a longtime leader like Albert Lentz has on a community," said Van Dyke, director of the Pennsylvania Human Relations Commission which tracks hate crimes and groups in the state.

Lentz, a legend in the York County Ku Klux Klan, was the leader of the White Unity Party. Before dying in 1998, Lentz, who led his first Klan rally out popular racist rock bands are affiliated with the Hammerskin Nation, and the group regularly sponsors concerts.

The other group — The World Church of the Creator — formed a branch in Wrightsville last year. It's a nationally known white supremacist group that believes in the goal of having an all-white nation, said the Rev. Matt Hale, leader of the organization.

Hale said he knows of the Wrightsville branch and its leader, but doesn't know much about its activities. He said the group consists of about a dozen people. The group apparently does not have a set meeting place, but it does have a P.O. Box address. Attempts to reach the organizers of the branch were unsuccessful.

"They pass out literature," he said. "And they have meetings, but I don't know if there is a set time."

"I'd like to see them be more active," he said, adding he would like them to hold street demonstrations and give speeches.

But groups such as the World Church of the Creator are not welcomed by the general population in York County, which is why they aren't very active, Ash said.

"The things happening in and around York County are being done by two to three people," she said. "We have no organized hate groups here."

"Those kinds of things aren't happening here like they are elsewhere, like Lancaster, where there's a Klan rally scheduled for next month."

The Klan is scheduled to hold a rally, its first in Lancaster in a decade, on Sept. 8. While the white supremacist group gathers at the Lancaster County Courthouse steps that day, an opposing "Unity Celebration" will take place at Franklin & Marshall College.

Unity groups such as the Ad Hoc Coalition and Hanover United help shield York from organized hate groups, Ash said.

The Coalition formed a few months ago in response to the National Alliance's sticker-posting. As soon as literature was passed out July 30 in York, the coalition held a peace vigil in response.

Ash called the vigil effective and plans to hold more as needed. She said she judges success by the number of people who join in on the unity events. She said more and more people came out to this summer's activities, which she sees as a good sign that York is not tolerant of groups such as Hammerskin Nation, National Alliance or the World Church of the Creator.

"York County is so lucky because it has so many unity groups," she said. "We have to keep working together like this to make it work."

Chief not why I'm coming

I read with amazement Stephen J. Kaufman's letter to the editor that appeared in The Daily Illini on Sept. 4, in which he implied that the administration's support for Chief Illiniwek is why I feel "welcome" in Champaign.

The reality is that widespread support for the American Indian mascot has nothing whatever to do with my coming to Champaign. In fact, I am opposed to American Indian mascots as much as anyone, though my reasons will undoubtedly stun the likes of the Stephen Kaufmans of the world. I am opposed to American Indian mascots because I believe that American Indian mascots give a savage and disgusting race an honor they do not deserve. Further, I believe that it would be better to completely erase American Indians from the history of this country, and I dislike that people only remember American Indians — in a false way, at that — because sports teams everywhere use them as their mascots.

I find it interesting that Kaufman is supposedly so concerned about American Indians when his own "tribe," the Jews, have been responsible for countless atrocities against people the world over, including today's Palestinians. Instead of grieving about the supposed "racial injustice" concerning American Indians, it might be better if he were to end the racial injustices perpetuated by his own race.
